JULY 2011

Red Cross Communications Services keep military personnel in touch with their families following the death, serious illness of an immediate family member, the birth of a service member's child/grandchild or when a family faces other emergencies.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES

24 hours a day, 365 days a year, the Red Cross relays urgent messages containing accurate, complete, and certified information of the emergency to service members stationed anywhere in the world, including on ships at sea, at embassies, and remote locations.

When calling the Red Cross, please provide the following information about the service member:

- Full name
- Rank/Rating
- Branch Of Service (Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard)
- Military Address
- Information about the deployed unit and base unit (deployed service members only).
